

Alpha i Two-factor Authentication (2FA) Operation Guideline

In order to upgrade the cybersecurity of online trading service and improve the security level of trading platform, you can experience a more reliable, convenient and secure electronic trading services by only login your account with identity authentication.

1. Login Account

Input your account number and login password, and then press “Login”. You will be required to use your registered smartphone for second authentication.

2. Identity Authentication

Press “Pending Authentication”, the App will show the account number required for authentication. You only need to use your fingerprint or password for authentication. The App will show “Successful authentication. You are now logging in the trading platform.” after completion of authentication.

